The ICAI New England Chapter and The ICAI Atlanta Representative Office

jointly present a technical discussion on

A Holistic and High-Performance Approach to Cybersecurity Readiness & the Role of Accountants by Dr. Dave Chatterjee, Ph.D., CA.

To effectively prepare and respond to the ever increasing and evolving cyberattacks, organizations must have a comprehensive plan and execute it with great precision and consistency. Dr. Chatterjee will draw upon his Commitment-Preparedness-Discipline framework to discuss the success factors associated with a holistic and high-performance approach to cybersecurity readiness. During the discussion, Dr. Chatterjee will also address the significant role of accountants and auditors in enhancing cybersecurity readiness.

Dr. Chatterjee, Ph.D., CA. is a Chartered Accountant and a tenured professor in the Department of Management Information Systems at the Terry College of Business, The University of Georgia. Dr. Chatterjee also holds a Visiting Professorship at Duke University's Pratt School of Engineering where he teaches in the Master of Engineering in Cybersecurity Program. Dr. Chatterjee recently authored the book titled Cybersecurity Readiness: A Holistic and High-Performance Approach that was published in March 2021. Refer to Dr. Chatterjee's detailed bio here.
